Rhee Lifts His Ouster Decree

SEOUL (AP)—President Syngman Rhee tonight lifted the mid-night deadline of his ultimatum demand for neutral nations true supervisors to get out of Korea. He advised against violent demonstrations.

Rhee said he acted on assurance from Asst. Secretary of State Walter Robertson that the U. S. government "will make efforts soon" to seek peaceful withdrawal of the four-nation truce commission.

He said Robertson gave the assurance in a letter.
"Our people at this time should be patient about everything," Rhee said, in a statement.
"We might be misunderstood if the demonstrations continued until all the members of the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission leave Korea."

Rhee's statement, broadcast in Korea two hours before the mid-night deadline, was released by the government office of public information.
It followed three mob assaults on the Wolmi Island truce team compound in Inchon harbor. The last two attacks were stopped at a sandbag barricade thrown across a causeway linking the Wolmi to the mainland.

RAINS PLEASE FARMERS BUT CUT BUSINESS

The farmers at the Farmers' Market were pleased with the rains that have ended the long siege of drought, even though it reduced the number of customers this morning and made the harvesting of produce for market a wet job.

Peaches predominated at this morning's session, with baskets and heaped counters in most of the stalls. Prices ranged between 25 and 35 cents for a quarter peck. The first few plums made an appearance this morning, selling at 25 cents a quart box.

The corn yield continues to increase, with most of the stalls having supplies. Golden Cross was selling for 25 cents a dozen, while Golden Bantam went for 35 a dozen and Stowell's Evergreen for 35 to 50 cents a dozen. Tomatoes were plentiful, with the prices remaining at 25 and 30 cents a quart box.

Apples, Potatoes Plentiful
Summer apples were also available in quantity. Rambos were offered at 25 cents a quarter peck and 40 a half peck, and Duchesses at 25 and 45. Some crabapples were also going for 25 and 45. Apple Butter was 45 cents a jar.

New potatoes were also plentiful, with the prices down to 10 cents a quart box, 25 cents a quarter peck and 55 cents a half peck. Lima beans dropped to 30 cents a pint. A few blueberries remained at 30 cents a pint.

Beets remained at 10 cents a bunch, squash at five, ten and 15 cents each, and green peppers at two for five. Onions were 15 cents a box, and dressed chickens 55 cents a pound. Eggs sold for 60 and 65 cents a dozen, with pullet eggs going for 35 cents.

Hurricane Connie Shrivels To A Gale And May Blowout Today

BALTIMORE, (AP)—Connie, once a hurricane but now more of a gale, advanced steadily northward up Chesapeake Bay and appeared on the verge of blowing herself out today.

The Washington Weather Bureau's 5 a.m. EST advisory said all hurricane warnings have been lowered from the Delaware Breakwater north to Eastport, Me., but storm warnings remained in sight.

The bureau said storm warnings on Delaware Bay and the upper Chesapeake would be lowered later in the morning.
But Connie had already contributed directly or indirectly to 26 known deaths, and damage in the millions of dollars. Four persons were missing and assumed dead. Ironically, she became more gentle as she neared the scene of her worst havoc, off Calvert County, Maryland. There, the sailing schooner Levin J. Marvel had cap-

COUNTY SCOUTS PREPARE FOR '56 SENIOR ROUNDUP

The annual Adams County Girl Scout Council Troop Camp, held at Camp Conewago, near Dicks Dam, ended Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock with a ceremony at which badges secured during the week's work were presented to the 63 scouts who attended the outing.

For five of the girls, the camp was a preview, in actual practice, of the type of camping they will experience if they are among the three Senior Scouts to be selected from the county for attendance at the annual Senior Round-Up of scouts throughout the nation to be held near Detroit in 1956.

The Senior Scouts who took part in the practice were Mary Hewitson, Biglerville; Evelyn Gaston, Marllyn Culp and Rita King of Gettysburg and Janet Sell, Littlestown.

Round-Up Preparation

In their "Round-up" preparation, the Senior Scouts set up camp for a two day period in a clearing, then broke that camp and set up for three days in a wooded area. The two camps were necessary, scout leaders noted, because there will be no way of knowing in advance whether the county scouts will be assigned to a wooded area or a cleared area at the national encampment in which 4,000 girls will participate.

Mrs. Carroll Carter was director for this week's "Troop camp" at Conewago. Mrs. Donald Fair was assistant director.

Mrs. Arter was in charge of the Senior "Round-up" group, Mrs. Leland Doolittle, Biglerville, directed shelter No. 1 and taught campcraft; Mrs. Donald Fair, Get-

President Arrives Friday Afternoon

President Eisenhower drove through a driving rain and gale-like winds from the White House to his Gettysburg farm Friday afternoon arriving here at 5:35 o'clock. Mrs. Eisenhower was at the farm awaiting him. In addition to the storm elements traffic was exceptionally heavy throughout the 85 miles. The trip was made in two hours and 25 minutes.

The President plans to drive back to Washington tomorrow to take off from National Airport for Denver about 4 p.m. He probably will stay there until sometime in October.

Mrs. Eisenhower does not intend to accompany her husband to Denver tomorrow, but probably will fly back there with him August 24 when he returns East for a day to address the American Bar Association convention in Philadelphia.

11 LABOR CAMPS IN ADAMS AWAIT OKAY BY STATE

No evidence of sub-standard migrant labor camps has been discovered in York County, the State Labor and Industry Department at Harrisburg said Friday. Five camps have been approved in the county.

A spokesman for the department pointed out that the Health Department also inspects labor camps, but confines its inspections mostly to sanitary facilities such as water supplies.

The State Health Department reported there were two labor camps in York which have not been approved yet but pointed out these were waiting laboratory analysis of their water supplies.

In Adams County there are 11 camps still awaiting the Health Department's okay because their water has not yet been analyzed, according to H. Clay Hull, of the environmental hygiene division.

In York County, the Labor and Industry Department has approved permits for the following camps: D. E. Winebrenner Company, two camps in the Hanover area; Hanover Canning Company, Charles Shanberger, Stewartstown, and S. E. Keeney, York.

Because of the soaked condition of the Littlestown playing field and the continued rain, league officials this morning cancelled the program.

CAR DIVES INTO RIVER; 2 DIE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A speeding car carrying four Philadelphia young men shot off a pier into the Delaware river today and two of the occupants were believed drowned.

A Belmar, N. J. truck driver who saw the accident dived into the wind-whipped river and helped the driver rescue one of his companions.

Police listed as missing John O'Leary, 21, a steel worker, and Daniel Mallon, 19, a Pennsylvania railroad clerk.

Those who escaped were Pvt. Thomas Tooley, Jr., 19, a marine home on leave from Camp Lejeune, N. C., who was identified by police as the driver, and Joseph Gillespie, 19.

Tooley was thrown from the car as it plunged into 20 feet of water off the Dock Street pier, near Delaware avenue. Gillespie, who had been sitting besides Tooley, kicked out a window of the new sedan and rose to the surface, but in doing so suffered a leg fracture.

As he and Tooley clung together, Robert C. Grippo, 21, the truck driver, swam to them and aided in bringing Gillespie back to the pier where arriving rescue squads pulled the men to safety.

When the car was raised several hours later, neither body was in it. Grappling crews found the body of an unidentified man but said they were not sure if it was either of two missing men or that of a third man possibly drowned days ago.

Patrolman Daniel McDonough estimated the car was traveling 80 miles an hour as it reached the pier area. The car hit a heavy timber bolted to the bulkhead as it tried to turn. The timber gave way and the car shot into the river.

Tooley was charged with homicide by auto.

Lewisburg Anxiously Awaits Her Son, Released By Reds

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — The long 2½ year wait was about over today for Mrs. Hurley L. Baumer.

Her son, Maj. William H. Baumer, flew east across the country, expecting to arrive at Middletown Air Force Base, near Harrisburg, about 4 p.m.

"I'm as happy as can be," the central Pennsylvania widow said as she prepared to travel to Middletown with other members of her family to meet her son.

Baumer was one of 11 American airmen released last week by the Chinese Communists after 32 months in a prison camp. He walked to freedom on crutches.

"I'm awfully happy that he'll be home at last," Mrs. Baumer said. Baumer disclosed the time of his arrival in a telephone call to his mother from San Francisco. The 11 airmen arrived at Travis Air Force Base in California yesterday.

Originally, the airmen was scheduled to arrive at Middletown at 6:40 p.m. today but his call gave his mother almost three hours less to wait.

Mrs. Baumer said her son's voice "sounded so good" in the telephone conversation yesterday, the second call she has received from Baumer since his release by the Communists.

In the first call, she said his voice "sounded so old" but attributed that to poor connections between Lewisburg and Tokyo.

"He sounded just like he used to," she declared happily after yesterday's talk, adding that he was cheerful and had a good sense of humor.

Mrs. Baumer was to make the trip to Middletown with her three married daughters two sons-in-law and a granddaughter. Another daughter and son-in-law and two more grandchildren were to go to Middletown from their Allentown home.

Meanwhile, residents of nearby Milton prepared a home town welcome for the returning airman.

A full dress parade and program of ceremonies are on tap for 8 p.m. Monday.

The "welcome home committee" will present Baumer with a $750 war bond during ceremonies at Lincoln Park.

Baumer and his mother lived in Milton prior to his entrance into the Air Force. Since then, she has lived with a daughter in Lewisburg.

By ALAN CLINE

NEVADA CITY, Calif. (AP) — Airman Daniel C. Schmidt, disturbed and irritated from a long day of homecoming, met his son for the first time and held a lengthy but inconclusive conference with his remarried wife today.

The meeting was held in private and the 22-year-old flier, a prisoner of the Chinese Communists 32 months, said he would have three or four more meetings with his auburn-haired wife before making any decision on his marriage.

The wife, Una, says she married logger Alford Cline, 21, last September in the belief Schmidt had been killed when he and 10 other crewmen bailed out of a B29 over North Korea.

Begs For Privacy
Schmidt's 2½-year-old son, Danny Jr., was brought to the law office of Harold Berliner, Una's attorney, for the reunion. After a three-hour meeting, with his wife, Schmidt told reporters he had nothing to say now. He said he would remain in this high Sierra community until "we get this thing worked out." And as he had done before when he landed yesterday at Travis Air Force base near San Francisco, Schmidt begged for privacy.

"Quit following us around," he asked television and newspaper cameramen clustered in front of Ber-

Canine Odyssey In Michigan Ends Well

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. (AP) — Bobby Lawson, 7, of Center Line, Mich., has his pet, Sniffles, back now. But for 10 months the black and white mongrel dog lived here. Sniffles got lost while Bobby and his parents were vacationing. Bobby's mother wrote a pleading letter to the Sault Ste. Marie Evening News, enclosing a picture of Sniffles.

Many people saw Sniffles, but none could catch him. He ate with an anticraft battalion or with the workmen at the coal docks.

The Lawsons made a 350-mile trip, but Sniffles chose that weekend to be absent. They came a few weeks later to find Sniffles living in an abandoned house. He fled when the grown-ups walked in. Then Bobby tried it alone. Sniffles got the scent and bounded into Bobby's arms.

A double defeat has dropped Elmira's Pioneers into a three-way battle to stay out of the Eastern League basement.

The rains that washed out other league action last night failed to fall hard enough at Elmira as the Allentown Redbirds slapped the Pioneers, 6-3 and 5-2.

Elmira leads Albany by two percentage points and Johnstown by four. The cellar trio are a full 24 lengths back of front-running Reading.

The twin win moved Allentown to within two percentage points of Binghamton, holding the third spot nine games out.

Reading leads second-place Williamsport by 7½ games.

"GOD KNOWS BEST"

Many are the prayers to heaven . . . asking for so many things . . . some folks ask for strength and true love . . . others for a heart that sings . . . many prayers to God are answered . . . others never seem to be . . . but when people ask for guidance . . . God will always hear their plea . . . if requests are good and righteous . . . and the reason just and true . . . God will give the faith that's needed . . . to complete what we pursue . . . if the path we take is upright . . . God will help us all the way . . . when we make an evil detour . . . then the piper we must pay . . . oftentimes life seems, very dreary . . . and we can't escape its storm . . . because God works mysteriously . . . His wonders to perform . . . so when prayers go on unanswered . . . keep your faith and don't protest . . . perhaps what you seek is harmful . . . God above always knows best.

ferred prayer and introduced the topic "Youth At the Crossroads." Readings on the topic were given by the members. A who's who test took place, after which the missionary benediction was repeated in unison.

The business period was in charge of Mrs. Samuel Renner, president, who read a letter from the Rev. and Mrs. Wantz, missionaries overseas. It was decided to conduct a bazaar table and fish pond at St. John's annual picnic on Saturday, Aug. 20, in the church grove. A report was heard from Mrs. Albert Starnes, secretary. During the social hour refreshments were served the group by Mrs. Harry O. Harner and Mrs. Alvin J. Groat.

The Society will meet again on Thursday, September 8, at the church, with Mrs. Kenneth Miller as leader. The hostesses will be Mrs. Edwin L. Harget and Mrs. Wilbur Hollenshead.

Hurricane

ening storm was still kicking up waves with 30 miles per hour winds but the Coast Guard officer in charge said tides rose only about 2½ feet above normal.

Lashes Jersey Coast

In New Jersey, winds up to 60 miles an hour lashed the coast early this morning, and residents were evacuated from some exposed areas. Even before the storm arrived, Connie accounted for five accidental deaths in the state, and two young fishermen were missing off Little Egg Inlet.

In the New York metropolitan area, water poured out of the sky until a record 6.08 inches had sloshed down in 24 hours. The rainfall was blamed directly or indirectly for at least nine deaths.

The tropical blow wore itself down in its assault on coastal North Carolina. With winds well below its former 135-mile peak, the storm was scarcely more than an overgrown gale when it passed over Virginia's eastern shore last night. The eye began disintegrating into a number of small squalls and Connie, as a hurricane, appeared for a short while to be through. But winds which had diminished to a 58 miles per hour maximum went to 80 and she regained hurricane characteristics.

Is Headed North

The Norfolk Weather Bureau said she picked up forward velocity and headed northeastward, but a Washington Weather Bureau bulletin at 2 a.m. indicated she was headed almost north with the center off the mouth of Virginia's Rappahannock River.

Still later, the Baltimore Weather Bureau reported Connie a few miles still further north off the mouth of the Potomac and said the center would pass in the vicinity of Baltimore about 6 a.m.

Connie still was packing winds of 60 miles per hour and at Ocean City, Md., on the Atlantic 60 miles northeast of the reported center, winds of 75 miles per hour were reported.

But the 2 a.m. Washington advisory said there were signs Connie was again weakening and showing signs of losing hurricane characteristics.

As the intensity of the storm again began slackening, the Weather Bureau at Boston ordered hurricane warnings taken down from Block Island, R.I., to Eastport, Maine. Southeast storm warnings were substituted. The only hurricane warnings remaining in force were along the Maryland and Delaware coasts.

EX-NAZI SPY IS DEPORTED TO HOMELAND

WASHINGTON (AP)—Erich Gimpel, one of two Nazi spies who sneaked into this country from a German submarine during World War II, was bound for his native Germany today.

The Justice Department announced yesterday that Gimpel, now 46, was deported under proceedings that had begun in April, 1947.

The order said that Gimpel was deportable because "at the time of his entry, he was an immigrant not in possession of valid entry papers." He was taken from the Federal Prison at Atlanta, Ga., to New York City and placed aboard the S.S. Italia, which sailed yesterday.

Companion Still Here

His companion, William Colepaugh, 37, who was born in the United States, is in Federal Prison at Leavenworth, Kan.

Colepaugh and Gimpel were convicted of espionage after FBI agents arrested them in New York in December, 1944. That was one month after they had landed on the Maine coast by rubber boat launched from a German submarine. When caught, they had spent $3,425 of their original $60,000, some of it for materials with which to build a short wave radio transmitter which they planned to use for sending information to Germany.

Both were given death sentences, but the White House commuted them to life imprisonment. Colepaugh's sentence later was reduced to 30 years.

Today's Talk

FLOWERS
The longer I live the longer becomes my appreciation of flowers, and my knowledge of them.
All flowers are beautiful, cultivated ones and the wild ones. For my summer cabin I prefer the wild ones that I pluck about the island and in the open spaces where they get a daily drink of life from the sun.

It would be interesting to learn how each one of those flowers originated. In a small vase on my writing desk this moment are some Pogonias (Snake-mouth) that I have gathered along the shore of the lagoon. These are delicate pink flowers that to me look more like a miniature orchid than a snake's mouth! They only last a short time during June and July,
and then they close their career
for the year.

I love the pink Ladies' Slipper (Moccasin flower) but only a stray one is left for me when I get to my summer forest. I know of no wild flower, however, that is not interesting and beautiful, no matter how small or large. The yellow and white pond lilies are with me all summer in the lagoon a few feet from where I sit, read and write.

Some of the flowers that grow in the tropics amaze me by their beauty and originality. While in Hawaii a few years ago I loved the orchids growing in the gardens and hot-houses, and many were the exotic flowers that intrigued me. God must have loved flowers else he would not have scattered them all over this earth for the love and appreciation of every type of human being.

There is a famous saying: "Say it with Flowers." Well, it can easily be done. They often express more than words. In sending out flowers to loved ones I often place these interesting words upon a card: "The very flowers that bend and meet in sweetening others grow more sweet." The coloring and designs of all flowers are perfect. No artist has ever surpassed the beauty of flower designs; he can only try and imitate them on the canvas. God has delicately perfumed his flowers, too, so as to attract the birds, I guess. The tiny hummingbird could tell you!

THE WISE AGE
For girls, they call it "sweet sixteen."
Of life the loveliest stage.
For boys, it only seems to mean
The "voice of wisdom" age.

At sixteen girls are fair to see
Wherever they appear.
But parents all must patient be
A boy that old to hear.

Since they're old-fashioned, he'll propose
They learn the customs new.
He'll tell his family all he knows,
And tell his grandpa, too.

But if of him they loving stay
And his advice endure, He'll be all right. There'll come the day

When he won't be so sure.

SAY U. S. WILL EXPORT ATOMIC
FUEL SUPPLIES

GENEVA (AP)—The United States was reported today to have decided to export to certain countries atomic fuel of a grade sufficient to operate atomic power stations.

This information came from a highly qualified source who said Belgium probably would be the first nation to get such fuel.

Up to now the United States has not shipped any atomic fuel abroad but it had agreed to supply 27 countries with enough 20 per cent enriched uranium to operate one research reactor.

Leading atomic scientists — including Dr. H. J. Bhabha of India, president of the current atomic conference — say atomic fuel rich enough to operate a power station is also of possible weapon grade.

The 20 per cent enriched fuel, however, is considered usable only for research and creation of radio isotopes.

It could not be learned to which other countries besides Belgium the richer, power grade fuel would be sent, but they apparently will be only those which have closest ties of friendship with the United States.

Even then, it was learned, the United States will insist on having inspection rights to make sure the fuel is being used only to operate power stations.

It was understood that Belgium would be the first to get power grade fuel because of the important role that country has played in development of the atomic power program in the United States.

As far back as the Franklin D.
Roosevelt administration when the United States had only the barest uranium resources, it was said that Belgium contributed generous supplies.

For this reason, Belgium was promised the most favorable treatment when and if atomic resources reached the point when they could be sent to other countries.

DROP CHARGES AGAINST STONE

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—A complaint that actor Ezra Stone caused a disturbance has been withdrawn by the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The railroad's attorney made the move in court here yesterday before Chief Magistrate Joseph Sugrue.

Stone, former star of the Henry Aldrich radio show and now a freelance radio-TV director and producer, and his wife were arrested here June 17 by a railroad policeman after Stone refused to let a railroad conductor punch his ticket for 45 minutes because the train was that late.

Stone complained the railroad was always late and told newsmen after his arrest that "the public-be-damned attitude of the Pen-sylvania Railroad is victimizing thousands of commuters like myself and if we protest, we get arrested."

A resident of Newtown, Pa.,
Stone did not appear in court yesterday, but was represented by his attorney.

Best Drilled College All Stars Roll Up Record 30-27 Victory Over World Champion Browns

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO (AP)—Four former pro coaches who seldom, if ever, could get the better of Paul Brown when they were in the National Football League, succeeded in doing so last night when their boys did a man's job in beating the Cleveland Browns.

Coaches Curly Lambeau, Hank Anderson, Steve Owen and Hampton Pool got some consolation when their fine squad of thoroughly drilled College All Stars rolled up a record 30-27 triumph over the world pro champions.

It was the first time Brown had lost a game in Chicago.

75,000 See Upset
Some 75,000 fans and a national television audience saw the best-coached collegiate lads in years gain their first decision over the pros since 1950 and score their biggest point total since the series was inaugurated in 1934.

Stardom has to go to tiny Tad Weed of Ohio State, a practice-perfect placekicker who booted three field goals and two extra points; quarterback Ralph Guglielmi of Notre Dame, who ran, passed and directed the team unerringly; and Baylor's 190-pound halfback, L. G. Dupre, who booted 74 yards in 12 carries and took three passes for 49 more.

The "up front" men—with linebackers Tom Bettis of Purdue, Frank Bernardi of Colorado, and Sam Palumbo of Notre Dame among the top performers—held the Browns to 163 yards rushing and 162 passing on the 9 out of 12 completions by George Ratterman. The collegians picked up 200 yards rushing.

See-Saw Scoring
The see-saw scoring came this way:

First quarter:
Weed put the All Stars ahead 3-0 with a 21-yard field goal. Ratterman aneked over from one foot after a pass-interception drive that featured blasts of 37 yards by Ray Renfro and Maurice Bassett. The Browns led 7-3.

Second quarter:
Frank Eldon of Southern Methodist smashed the final three yards after a 42-yard kickoff return by Marquette's Ron Drzewiecki and Dupre's 19-yard sprint. All Stars 10-7.

Renfro scored on an 18-yard pitchout run to cap a 76-yard thrust in 10 plays. Browns 14-10. Dupre, on a 16-yard run and 21-yard pass play, set up Guglielmi's 5-yard scoring pitch to Henry Hair of Georgia Tech. All Stars 17-14.

Tied In Third Quarter
Ratterman passed 42 yards to Dante Lavelli then 25 to Renfro for a touchdown. Bernardi blocked Lou Groza's conversion attempt. Browns 20-17.

Third quarter:
Weed placekicked a 14-yard field goal. Browns 20, All Stars 20.

Fourth quarter:
Guglielmi hit Dupre for 19 yards to the Browns' 1. Mel Triplett of Toledo boomed across. Dave Leggett of Ohio State ran the ball over for the extra point. All Stars 27-20. Weed booted a 34-yard field goal. All Stars 30-20.

Curly Morrison barreled five yards to score ending an 89-yard march with time running out as All Stars won 30-27.

MERMAIDS TRY FOR TITLES IN BAD WEATHER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Fresh from cracking one world record and tying another yesterday in weather unfit for man or beast, America's top mermaids are back in the drink today competing for four more championships.

On today's program, slated to at least start with continued rain—the backlash of hurricane Connie—Pat McCormick, America's premier diver will seek to recover some of her lost prestige in the one meter dive; Carolyn Green, winner of the 1,500 meter freestyle opening night tries for a double in the 400 meter freestyle; Mary Jane Sears of the Walter Reed Swim Club, Washington, D. C., defends her 200 meter breaststroke crown, and the Ft. Lauderdale Swim Club's 800 meter freestyle relay team swims for a repeat triumph.

Lost To Mrs. Irwin
Mrs. McCormick, who annually sweeps the diving events at these meets, came a cropper yesterday when she lost to Mrs. June Stover Irwin, a 24-year-old Pasadena, Calif., mother of three, in the platform diving event Mrs. Stover had to share the spotlight, however, with a trio of comparative youngsters, 14-year-old Wanda Werner, 15-year-old Carol Cone, and 17-year-old Marie Gillett.

Miss Werner, of the Walter Reed Swim Club, tied a meet record in winning the 100 meter freestyle event in 1:06.1. Miss Cone, Ridge-way, N.J., tied a world record for a 50 meter course with a 2:45.6 performance in the 200 meter backstroke. Miss Gillett, also of Walter Reed, actually turned in the top job of them all as she laughed at the wind and rain with a 6:01.5 time, eclipsing her own world record of 6:06.9 for the 400 meter individual medley.

ROSBURG SETS PACE IN TAM

CHICAGO (AP)—Bob Rosburg is as unorthodox a golfer as you'll find, but he has the picture-swapping pros eating his dust in the "World" money rush at Tam O'Shanter. Rotund Robert, with a sensational two rounds of 66-67 for 133-11 under par, today was setting a record pace by two strokes in the scramble for first prize of $50,000 in cash and an exhibition contract of a potential 105 matches worth $1,000 each.

Following Rosburg into the third round was Wally Ulrich, seeking his first tournament victory since taking the Kansas City Open last year. Ulrich hooked up the best second 18-hole score of the field, a 66 for a midway total of 133. At 138 was Henry Ransom of the 1950 "World" winner who has shaken off a back ailment to reach the peak of his game.

Herbert Litter Back
Grouped at 140 were Jay Hebert, former Louisiana State star now in his seventh year as a pro; Gene Littler, fourth leading money winner, and Bo Wininger.

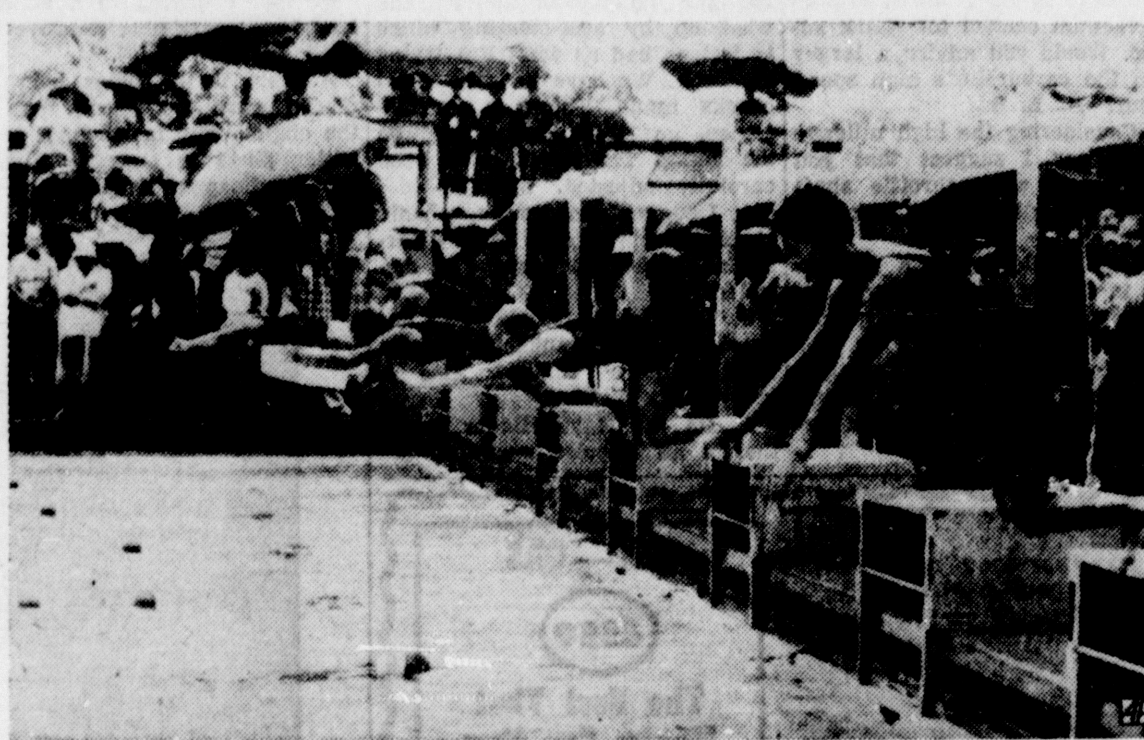

Farther behind were such big time champions as Doug Ford with an even par 144; Cary Middlecoff, 147; Jack Fleck, 142; Peter Thomson, 143; Sam Snead, 147; Lew Worsham, 148, a n.d. defending "World" champion Bob Toski, 152. Among the major blowups in the second round were Mike Krak, who zoomed to a 78 after sharing the opening lead with 66, and Fred Hawkins with a 76 to over-balance a 67.

PA. GOLFER'S SCORES
CHICAGO (AP)—Here are the scores of Pennsylvanians after the second round of play in the men's professional "World" Golf Tournament at Tam O'Shanter (par 144):

Ske Riegel, Ithaca, 72-71—143
Lionel Hebert, Erie, 70-73—143
Johnny Bulla, Export, 71-75—146
Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, 75-72—147
Lew Worsham, Oakmont, 71-77—148
Arnold Palmer, Latrobe, 74-78—148
Mike Souchak, Berwick, 75-75—150

Doris Hart of Coral Gables, Fla., was runner-up to the U. S. women's tennis crown five times before winning in 1954.

AAU Swim Meet Not Called Off For Wet Grounds

Under a steady downpour which drenched spectators and made them almost as wet as the swimmers, competitors in the senior national 100-meter freestyle heat take off at Kelly Olympic Pool, Philadelphia, Friday. Winner in this heat was Helen Stewart, Vancouver Swimming Club, at extreme right. OLD SCHOONER ON CHESAPEAKE IS POUNDED TO BITS BY STORM

By WARREN ROGERS JR.
NORTH BEACH, Md. (AP)—An ancient schooner off on a pleasure cruise was pounded to pieces in storm-lashed Chesapeake Bay, leaving 10 dead and 4 missing today.

Thirteen others were dramatically rescued yesterday by firemen, police, National Guardsmen and civilian volunteers who poured into this beach resort 30 miles south-east of Washington, D. C.

Six of the 13 were rescued by two men who went down to the beach "to see if we could lend a hand" and stayed to ferry them two at a time in a 14-foot skiff through waves as high as a man.

Nothing Left of Boat
There was nothing left of the boat, the Levin J. Marvel out of Annapolis, Md., except a fragment of her cabin and debris which littered the spongy sand.

"I didn't see a bit of wreckage bigger than a door," said one police officer. "She must have taken a terrific beating."

The 10 dead included 6 men, 3 women and a 9-year-old girl. Most of them were from New York. Eight bodies were taken to Baltimore, two to Annapolis.

Skipper Survives
The 13 survivors included John Mechling, 38-year-old skipper of the Marvel, and his three crewmen, all of Annapolis. One of them, Stephen Morton, a 17-year-old high school senior, gave reporters a graphic account of the tragedy.

He said the 64-year-old Marvel, a 128-foot three-masted barge-like vessel called a ram, left the Chesapeake's eastern shore Thursday. She had been out since Monday on a tour of historic ports in the bay.

The idea, he said, was to reach Annapolis on the western side before Hurricane Connie struck. But a lot of things went wrong—winds, the water pump, the auxiliary motor.

Reach Dusk Blind
"The water started coming over the deck . . . quicker than we could pump it out," he said, and then: "A big wave came along and laid the boat on its side."

With the Marvel breaking up fast off North Beach, Morton and five others, all lashed together, made it to a duck blind a mile downwind and 200 yards offshore.

It was there they were spotted through the wind-driven rain by the two men who had come to help—William McWilliams, 28-year-old North Beach fireman, and George Kellum, 31-year-old construction worker.

Paper Tiger Favored In Olympic Handicap

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Paper Tiger, son of the famed Stymlie, headed a field of 10 today in the $25,000 added Olympic Handicap.

Conn McCreary was picked to ride Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' stretch runner, who was expected to rule the favorite in the mile and a furlong event.

Chief threat to Paper Tiger was Main Chance Farm's Jet Action, who had the added advantage of jockey Sam Boulmetis, a consistent winner on the New Jersey racing circuit.

YORKER GUILTY IN TAX CASE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A York, Pa. executive has been found guilty on three counts of evading $41,000 in income taxes.

A jury of seven men and five women returned the verdict against Charles L. Pechenik, president of Colonial Products Co. of York, yesterday in U.S. District Court.

No date was set for sentencing. Pechenik faces a maximum fine of $15,000 and a maximum prison term of 15 years. Judge George H. Boldt, visiting from the Seattle district, presided over the week-long trial.

Originally Pechenik was charged with evading $90,000 in taxes, but the figure was successively reduced to $50,000 and $41,000 during the trial.

Auto Crash In Rain Kills 2 Near York

YORK, Pa. (AP)—Two persons were killed during a blinding rainstorm last night when their convertible slipped off Rt. 111, 10 miles south of here and smashed into a tree.

Police identified the victims as Allan L. Sechrist, 20, Palmyra, and Huber Beatty, Woodbine Rd. 1, York County.

Trooper Harold W. Eckenrode of the York state police said the car was demolished and the victims had to be pried from the front seat of the machine. He said investigators were unable to determine who was driving the auto.

Sechrist suffered a fractured skull, a crushed chest and internal injuries. Beatty died of internal injuries.

U.S. Swim Trio Thills Europeans

ATHENS (AP)—Three U. S. amateur swimmers have enthralled Greek fans with their display of technique. They are John Clover of New York, Bert Mullen of South Carolina and Maureen Murphy of Oregon. They won every event in which they took part.

The trio is on an exhibition tour which included Finland, Turkey and Egypt. During their stay here they helped the Greek national swimming team with training, demonstrations and lectures.

COURT SLAYER BATTERS SELF

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—Percy Haines, 60, accused courtroom slayer, was found out and bruised in his cell, yesterday after having battered his head against the walls and floor.

Jail officials said that Haines, under guard around the clock, waited until the guard left his post for a few minutes, to release his brief flicker of fury. The jail physician treated him for minor cuts and bruises.

Haines, morose and quiet in his cell until yesterday, is awaiting trial on a charge of murder in the pistol death of John D. Faller Jr., during a wife support hearing in Cumberland County Court on Aug. 2. Faller represented Mrs. Haines.

The shooting occurred after Judge Mark E. Garber entered an order against Haines. Judge Garber Haines' wife, and George Black, another attorney, were wounded.

Eagles Test Colts Tonight At Hershey

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles and Baltimore Colts of the National Football League put their 1955 squads through their first tests tonight in an exhibition game at Hershey Stadium, the Eagles' training grounds.

The Eagles will start only one rookie in a lineup they hope will bring them their first league title since 1949. The Colts will field basically the same team as last year's cellar dwelling outfit in the Eastern Division.

Micelotta Returned To Syracuse Club

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Robert Micelotta, 26-year-old Bayside, Long Island, shortstop, has been returned to Syracuse after emergency duty with the National League Philadelphia Phillies.

Micelotta was brought up from the International League team July 23 after Phillies' infielders Grady Hamner and Roy Smalley had been injured. Both have returned to action. Micelotta was sent back yesterday.

Five-game Winning Streak Puts Cleveland Full Game Ahead In AL While Chisox Shove Tigers Down

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
If Cleveland really has shaken its slump and Bob Lemon is back to stay, can the Indians' second straight American League pennant be far behind?

It's been a pleasant mystery to Manager Al Lopez how his Tribe has managed to stay so close in the touch-and-go race without a consistent attack and with his ace righthander nursing injury. Now, regaining the lead for the first time since May 21, the Indians have jumped into a one-game edge, triggered by a five-game winning streak.

They lengthened the gap by sweeping a day-night doubleheader, 17-1 and 6-5, at Kansas City yesterday while runnerup Chicago snared a 2-1 decision at Detroit.

Yankees Are Third
Third place New York fell 1½ games behind and fourth place Boston wound up four games back as the result of rainouts fostered by hurricane Connie.

A continued power streak and the first starting job in more than three weeks for Lemon brightened the pennant picture for the Tribe in the afternoon contest. Bobby Avila clubbed two of the Tribe's four homers, pairing his first with Jim Hegan's grand slammer in a seven-run first inning.

Cleveland now has hit nine round-trippers in four games, almost on the pace that gave them the AL home run title with 156 last season.

Control Was Perfect
Lemon, now 13-7, worked just six innings in the first real test for his injured leg and gave only four hits. His control was perfect, walking none, and he fanned one. A year ago, he was 16-5 at this point—then won seven as the Tribe clinched the pennant in the last 40 games.

Sai Maglie mopped up in the first game, giving three hits and an unearned run in the last three frames.

In the night contest, Cleveland overcame a 2-0 A's lead with five in the sixth as Hal Naragon tripled with two on and Al Smith hit a two-run homer. Ferris Fain doubled home what proved the clincher in the ninth as Ray Narleski choked off a Kansas City rally in the ninth after two runs scored.

11th For Trucks
Art Houtteman, tagged for homers by Gus Zernial and Bill Rema, won his ninth. He was relieved by Don Mossi and Narleski as the A's scored in the seventh.

The White Sox took the lead on Jim Rivera's two-run homer in the first inning of loser Steve Gromek and managed to make it stand. Virgil Trucks, with help from Milard Howell who got Ray Boone to fly out with two on in the eighth, won his 11th.

It was the fifth straight setback for the Tigers, now 9 games behind in their fifth place spot. Rivera has driven in seven runs in two games, counting five with two triples and a double at Kansas City Thursday.

Braves Tumble
In the National, where Philadelphia at Brooklyn and Pittsburgh at New York also were washed away by heavy rain, Milwaukee tumbled 16½ games behind the front running Brooks in a 7-1 defeat at Chicago. St. Louis rallied twice to split Cincinnati 8-7 in the only other game.

The Braves, scoring just two runs, were held to five hits by Bob Rush, who won his ninth. Dee Fondy lined a leadoff double and three followup singles gave the Cubs a 2-0 lead in the first off loser Ray Cronce.

Cincinnati led 5-0 at one stage. Then St. Louis fought back to tie on homers by Bill Virdon and Wally Moon before Stan Palys' two-run shot in the seventh gave it back to the Redlegs, 7-5. The Cards wrapped it up with three in the ninth after two were out. Moon's infield hit capped it.

Florida has 130,000 more people moving into it than move out in an average year.

Hurricane May Postpone Tennis

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Hurricane Connie, a fickle lass, threatened today to cause a second postponement of the Australia-Italy Davis Cup interzone final — but Aussie Captain Harry Hopman was prepared to wait it out.

The challenge round, which presumably will pit Australia against the defending champion United States, is scheduled for the week-end after next and Hopman doesn't want to take any chances, so he vetoed any thoughts that the tie against Italy be put back until next weekend if the weather makes it impossible to play today.

Some Of Car Troubles That Occur This Time Of Year Can Be Traced To Winter Neglect

By FREDERICK C. RUSSELL

If nothing else the automobile has managed to prove that the race is not always to the swift.

Traced Back To Winter

Some of the things that may happen to a car at this time of year can be traced back to last winter when some bit of neglect planted the seed of trouble. It points up the fact that in motoring much of what develops in the way of ailments builds up gradually and doesn't just "happen."

Typical is the serious overheating which follows leakage of coolant around a loosened core plug in the engine block. This trouble can be traced back to a day when the car was exposed to extremely low temperatures with not sufficient anti-freeze protection. Some of the coolant in the block started to freeze and expand. This loosened the core plugs. One of them then may let go when the car is being driven hard some hot day.

Sometimes leakage in the coolant system will start because of carelessness in use of cleansers. This is no job for the amateur. In many cases cylinder head gaskets develop leakage because owners have ignored the rule about not using fresh anti-freeze each winter season. Inhibitors in anti-freeze are alkaline; gases that slowly leak into the cooling system past the head gasket are acid. The product is salt, which is hostile to gaskets and other parts of the cooling system.

As It Should Be

Just because gear noise when an automatic transmission is in neutral may mean trouble with the oil supply, or other conditions, is no reason to assume that this is always true. In one of the automatics widely used this year all the gears are free to rotate when the transmission is in the neutral position. This often is quite audible. In such cases nothing should be done about it. All of which reminds me of the motorist who, taking delivery of a new car, complained that there was quite a noise under the hood every time he touched the starter button. Sometimes we have to learn that some noises mean all's well.

Care With That Cap

When a modern engine overheats be careful checking the water level in the radiator. In the old days there usually was steam leaking out around the radiator cap, but today the pressure cap keeps things pretty well under control. That is likely to trap you into trouble. So in removing the cap always turn it part way so as to release pressure to the overflow pipe. You can hear the vapor escaping. After there has been this initial escape of pressure complete the removal carefully.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:

"I am always interested in watching customers who, while waiting for me to finish up a job on their cars, walk around looking at odd things about other people's cars. They are very quick to notice defects and often tell me that perhaps I should take a look at something that seems to need attention. This is all very well, but I wonder why they don't do the same with their own cars."

"A little time spent looking over the car carefully will often pay real dividends. I follow the rule myself and always profitably. Maybe it is just evidence of leakage of oil, or perhaps one tire is a little softer than it should be. Recently I found two cars with gas tank cap missing."

You may not realize that in addition to using smaller diameter wheels and larger section tires with lower air pressure steering of the manual type has been made more of a problem for engineers over the years because of greatly increased weight on the front wheels. This explains why there is such a trend toward power steering. Incidentally, the hydraulic pump which is driven by the engine consumes only about two horsepower which is a small item in these days of the supermotor.

Just For The Record

Because engines are so much more complicated these days it is not so easy for the motorist of a mechanical turn of mind to tinker with valve tappets. And this is just as well because engineers have done considerable checking and have come up with the discovery that the noise isn't due to the tappet striking the end of the valve stem as most people have suspected but is due to the valve hitting its seat. Just think of the hours motorists have spent trying to adjust tappets, and rocker arms of overhead valves, so as to get rid of that annoying ticking sound which wasn't where they thought it was at all.

When a valve seats too rapidly it naturally comes to a stop with a sharp noise. This excess velocity of a valve is due to closing while the lifter is down on the flank of the cam when it should still be on the ramp. Technically this works out to be a case of the valve closing too soon. The situation is allowed to assert itself in a conventional engine because of the need for adjusting for excess clearance to take care of valve stem expansion. This isn't necessary where there are self-adjusting tappets which today can be either mechanical or hydraulic.

Misled By Speedometer
Every now and again I receive letters telling me of cars which do not seem to perform well at certain speeds. By all tests the engines are in fine condition but there's lack of performance. Why? That's what mystifies.

In one recent case where the car did not run well at speeds of 15 miles per hour in high gear it was discovered that the speedometer lied. It showed an error of five miles per hour in all speed ranges, so that at a recorded 15 mph the car actually was traveling only 10. Modern cars are not designed to run so slowly in high gear. They can do it with automatic transmissions because of the down gearing or the slippage of the fluid coupling.

Skipping The Exhaust
One of the extra dividends from Twin exhausts is the fact that fewer motorists will be worrying because the exhaust doesn't sound right to them. Listening to two exhausts at one time is just too much for the amateur diagnostician, so he skips it. This is all to the good. Far too many owners have tinkered with the timing and the carburetor needlessly in an effort to get what they desired in the way of a smooth exhaust, not realizing that some exhausts normally have a rather mixed up sound even during idling.

Also there are many times when idling may not be all that one desires yet the engine will function very well at speeds above this. By switching to dual exhausts the industry is going to discourage a form of sleuthing that has been a lot more trouble than it is worth in far too many cases.

Having Their Troubles
The engine of my car acts like it is being fed an excessively lean mixture. However, there is nothing wrong with the carburetor. Mechanics have also checked for air leakage at the gaskets, fittings and vacuum control for spark advance. Would you advise a larger jet in the carburetor's high speed system? H. L. S.

A. Considering the high mileage on this car I suggest that you check for a worn throttle shaft which would allow air to leak into the system.

What would cause a rattling noise in the clutch whenever I am in process of shifting gears? H. N. G.

A. This could mean a damaged clutch plate but more likely is due to worn parts in the clutch release assembly.

There is dragging of the left front brake on my car which is especially disturbing because of the power steering. I try to correct for the pull to the left and wind up by over-steering which is just as bad as what I'm trying to check. We have had the usual checks made. There is, for instance, no oil or brake fluid on the lining. The shoes have been carefully adjusted. Wm. H.

A. I suggest that your mechanic check the piston cups of this particular brake. They may be distorted.

Q. What is the frequency of impulse on the crankshaft of an eight cylinder engine? Also a twelve? K. T. McN.

A. On the eight-cylinder motor there's an impulse every 90 degrees of the shaft whereas on the twelve there is one every 60 degrees. On a sixteen cylinder engine there is one every 45 degrees. Q. Will changing to a different heat type spark plug improve gasoline mileage? K. F.

A. Yes, if the plugs being replaced were the wrong type for the engine. For instance, a set of hotter plugs in an engine which was handicapped by plugs too cool to fire the mixture efficiently during short, inefficient runs, or if there was pumping of oil into the cylinders past worn rings, would improve mileage.

Q. Examining the breaker points of my car carefully I noticed that there were holes in the fixed point. I presume you would call these valleys. Other times when I have made such inspection I have noticed that this fixed point had acquired hills. What accounts for this difference? N. N. A. Sr.

A. When there are valleys in the fixed point indications are that the condenser is under-capacity. Q. In spite of the fact that tests show that there is good compression in the cylinders of the engine of my car oil consumption still is too high. I do not drive fast or erratically. Oil pressure has been checked and found not to be excessive. The grade oil is correct. A. This could be due to improper timing. But check also for worn engine bearings.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern St., West Hartford, 7, Conn., and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.

BITTER CLASH ON ISSUING OF R. E. LEE STAMP

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP)—Another bitter dispute has arisen between the federal government and the cradle of the Confederacy and, as in the original unpleasantness, Gen. Robert E. Lee is in the thick of things.

The new dispute, which so far has been nothing more than a battle of words, involves the delicate question of which Virginia locality shall be allowed to make the first day issuance of a Robert E. Lee memorial stamp.

The Post Office Department, unaware that it was touching off hair-trigger Southern tempers, announced sometime ago that the honor would go to Norfolk.

When Alexandria protested, the department made haste to explain it would be a "burden" to issue the memorial stamp simultaneously in the two cities.

100 Are Disappointed

Alexandria thinks it's entitled to the first day issue because it was Lee's home town.

Although Norfolk hadn't claimed intimate connection with Lee's life

THOMAS MANN, WHOSE BOOKS WERE BURNED BY HITLER, DIES

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP)—Thomas Mann, 80, famed German-born author whose books were burned by the thousands in Hitler's Reich, died last night following a heart attack.

Mann, winner of the 1929 Nobel Prize for literature, left Germany shortly after Hitler came to power. He went to the United States before World War II and became an American citizen in 1944.

He had been active until last month when he was stricken with pleuritis, a vein inflammation, while vacationing in Holland. His physician said a "general condition of weakness" caused his death after the heart attack.

Returned To Europe

Mann came back to Europe in 1953 after 15 years in the United States. He said he had "the urgent desire to re-establish and cultivate the contact with the old soil of Europe."

Mann, his wife, Katja, and their daughter, Ericka, had lived in a small house overlooking the lake of Zurich.

First Novel In '01

Mann's first novel, "Buddenbrooks," written 54 years ago, was described by him as the "finest success of my life." He said the novel gave him "the necessary self confidence as an author."

More than 25 books followed. "The Magic Mountain," published in 1924, was considered by many to be his best work and was especially popular in the United States. "Joseph and His Brothers" was among his better known works.

Wed 50 Years

After going to the United States, he first lived at Princeton, N.J., and later in California.

Mann was championed by both the East German Communists and West Germans in the post-war years. In 1952 he termed freedom of opinion in the United States "rather restricted." He said, however, he was too much of an individualist to be a Communist and added that his residence on the Western side of the Iron Curtain was "not merely coincidence, a mistake or an accident."

Mann and his wife celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last February. They had three daughters and three sons. The eldest son, Klaus, died in 1949.

It was awarded the first day issue because the American Philatelic Society is holding its convention there Sept. 21 and it was the only city to speak up when the Post Office Department first announced plans for a Lee stamp.

The dispute flared Thursday when Alexandria City Manager R. F. Willard protested to the Post Office Department.

Jesse G. Johnson, chairman of the convention of stamp collectors took the uproar in stride. "At least 100 places are disappointed every time a stamp is issued in another community," he said.

NEW CALEDONIA PLAY

"The Little Hut," a farce about three English castaways on a desert island, will open at the Totem Pole Playhouse, Caledonia, Monday, for an engagement of one week.

The displaced Britons, a husband, wife and the husband's best friend, work out a comfortable existence on their tropic island. The wife copes with housekeeping, making beds of coconut leaves and preparing meals of fish and coconut. The husband develops new ideas to merchandise coconuts if they are ever rescued. They all enjoy their daily "coconut time."

India estimates there are eight million bullock carts in the Country.

RUSSIA GOING TO CUT ARMED FORCES 640,000

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

MOSCOW (AP)—Citing a "certain reduction of tension in international relations," the Soviet Union said today it will cut its armed forces by 640,000 men by Dec. 15.

The official Soviet News Agency Tass said the government decided on a reduction as a further step to lessen international tension and establish confidence among nations.

The number of men in Russia's armed forces has never been disclosed officially. Estimates put the totals at 2,800,000 in the army and 700,000 in the navy.

Tension Relieved
The Soviet announcement said: "Recent developments, in particular the results of the Geneva conference, show that a certain relaxation of international tension has been achieved."

"With a view to promoting the relaxation of international tension and establishing confidence among the nations, the Soviet government has decided to reduce the armed forces of the Soviet Union by 640,000 men by 15th December, 1955."

Russia announced two weeks ago its armed forces would be cut by 44,000 men—that number of troops being withdrawn from Austria under the terms of the Austrian independence treaty. Russia said the Soviet troops would be out of Austria by Oct. 1, about a month ahead of the treaty withdrawal deadline.

U. S. Cutting Too
At the Big Four summit conference in Geneva, the Soviets proposed that the United States, Britain, France and Russia all cut their armed forces by the number of troops to be withdrawn from Austria.

The United States has been making a progressive cut in its armed forces since a peak of 3,685,054 was reached in April, 1952, during the Korean War. The total on June

FINANCING OF ROAD PROGRAM UP TO CONGRESS

CHICAGO (AP)—The annual Governors' Conference has checked to Congress the job of finding a way to finance a vast new highway building program it called "vital to the nation's economy and defense."

Entertained at the annual all-star football game last night, the Governors scattered to their states after electing Washington's Republican Gov. Arthur B. Langlie as chairman and picking Atlantic City, N.J. as the site for next year's session.

In a windup business meeting the governors approved a resolution endorsing the "objectives" of President Eisenhower's super highway building program.

But on the suggestion of Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, they cut out of the resolution words that might have been interpreted as approving Eisenhower's proposal of financing this long range program.

The governors also avoided mention of possible tax increases to finance such a program, but they said the Federal Government ought to put back into roads "far more"

Plenty Of Rain But Regulation Stands

BALTIMORE, (AP)—Back in the days before the rains and hurricane Connie came, Baltimore was facing a water shortage. An order went out — people in even-numbered houses water lawns on even-numbered days, people in odd... etc.

Yesterday, as the wind drove the rain in sheets outside the windows of the Southwestern Police Station here, the phone rang. A woman's voice said:

"Is today the day for people in the odd houses or the even houses to water their lawns?"

"...in the even houses, lady," said the cop, calmly.

Man, 71, Carrying $16,699 In Pocket

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A 71-year-old Allentown man, who says he doesn't believe in banking his life's savings, was struck by a car yesterday while carrying $16,699 in cash in his pockets.

The victim, Grover Schreiber, was taken to Sacred Heart Hospital where he is reported in fair condition. The hospital is keeping the money for him in a safe.

than the present $75 million dollars allotted to that purpose out of 2 1/2 billions raised by U.S. levies on highway users.
